July Special: Mobile Website Design

By Sunburnt Internet Marketing, 11 June 2014

With mobile visitors now accounting for over half of your traffic it is pretty important that they can actually read your website. Unfortunately, most phones show your website in teeny-tiny font unless you build a separate design especially for mobile visitors.

This is how the web version of news.com.au looks on my phone:

It's slow and you can't read anything until you pinch the screen to zoom in. Not very useful. Sensibly, news.com also have a mobile version of their site which loads faster and is easily readable on a mobile device:

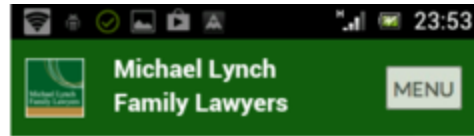

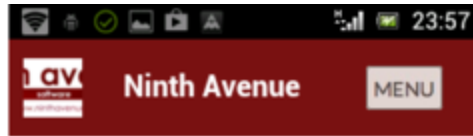

This end of financial year, we'd like to give you some incentive to improve your users' mobile experience by offering a discount on a mobile design for your website. Normally, a basic mobile design would set you back $, however until July 15 we're offering in to you for just $495.

The mobile design includes:

- A compact banner with your logo, trading name and menu button,
- A dropdown menu with your most important links,
- A search box at the top of the page,
- An email subscription form at the bottom of the page,
- Any other widgets you want us to add.

Here are some sample screenshots:

OrmLite DAO Factories And Connections Made Easy

By Roger Keays, 7 June 2014

OrmLite comes with some classes to help manage connections, but unfortunately they are poorly named and just plain confusing. For example, OpenHelperManager manages connections - and see if you can guess how that relates to

Secondly, this website tells you something about us. Family Law and De Facto

Relationship Law is all we do. We are Family Law Solicitors in Brisbane and not only are we one of the largest Specialist Family Law firms in Queensland, with over 70 years combined professional

We've timed this offer with the end of the financial year, so you can choose if you want to account for the expense over 03/04 or over 04/05. Just send us an email if you're interested in getting this set up for your site. Delivery time is approximately 10 working days.
